

EKNA Live Streaming Guidelines

In an effort to increase our engagement, we are offering live streaming to EKNA members who are unable to attend EKNA General Membership Meetings due to disability (temporary and permanent), child care issues or travel. The following are the guidelines for configuration and eligibility.

Configuration:

- Streaming will be conducted via a secure online streaming service that is set to a private setting to be streamed only to verified subscribers
- Streams will only be live and will never be archived
- All viewers will be previously vetted and will only be able to sign in via a unique code sent out to verified subscribers
- Verified streaming subscribers' emails will be stored in a secure data base
- Only verified streaming subscribers will be allowed to access the stream
- Any abuse of the stream by a verified subscriber such as, but not limited to, recording of the stream, dissemination of the stream to a third party or sharing the access code with a third party will result in immediate termination from the stream

Eligibility and Participation:

- Verified streaming subscribers must first sign up for the stream in person, at the general meeting or at another agreed upon time with the EKNA Board, and show proper proof of EKNA membership to become a verified subscriber
- Verified streaming subscribers may make comments during any comment period in regards to EKNA General Meeting business
- Verified streaming subscribers may participate in voice or paper ballot votes by submitting a comment
- Verified streaming subscribers will only be allowed to vote in EKNA elections if they are physically present at the meeting
- Verified streaming subscribers will receive credit for attending general meetings by tuning into the live stream
